British Cheese Selection

Lincolnshire Poacher

The smooth yellow paste has a full, nutty, tasty flavour with earthy overtones. The texture is firm and hard, very similar to Cheddar with a rich lingering after taste.

Kidderton Ash

Kidderton Ash is coated in charcoal ash to protect it as it ripens the rind of the cheese distinctively blooms through the ash as it ripens giving it a lovely grey, fluffy appearance.

Colston Basset Stilton

Hand-made by Billy Kevan and his team in Nottinghamshire. It is one of the last remaining hand-ladled Stilton's. An intensely rich and creamy cheese; and the Colston Bassett flavor is deep, lingering and complex.

Baron Bigod

A handmade cheese, Aged for up to 8 weeks has a smooth, delicate silky texture and golden paste with long lasting warm earth, farmyard and mushroom flavours.

Oxford Isis

Oxford Isis is sprayed and ripened with Oxfordshire Honey Mead. Over a period of time the cheese alters in character and matures on to a creamy consistency and develops a pronounced flavour and flowery aroma.
