

CHAMPAGNE & SEAFOOD TERRACE

Now in its second year, the Champagne and Seafood Terrace at The Cavendish Hotel is now showcasing the best of the Grande Marque Houses of Champagne.

Each house and winery has its own history and style, so we are confident that with careful and repeated research we can help you find your favourite.

Sometimes however, we can't teach an old dog new tricks. So if you like what you like, then we will have the bottle for you.

Please note, we are a cashless business.

Passion, creative boldness, free spirit and elegance through simplicity are the founding values of the House. At Laurent-Perrier, passion guides the hand. An unrivalled creator of style and emotions since 1812, Laurent-Perrier suits every occasion and offers a unique experience for all senses through its innovative and comprehensive range of champagnes.

Belle Epoque 2012	£225
Belle Epoque Rosé 2013	£275

Piper-Heidsieck is one of Champagne's most well-known yet underestimated houses. It has a rich history, being a favourite of Marilyn Monroe, who claimed she liked a glass to wake up in the morning, to being the first ever bottle of Champagne to feature in a movie when it starred in the 1933 Laurel and Hardy film 'Sons of the Desert'.

Cuvée Brut	£85
Sauvage Rosé	£85
Rare Millésime 2008	£230

Champagne Pol Roger has been producing exceptional champagne for over 160 years. To this day the house remains small, family-owned, fiercely independent and unrivalled in its reputation for quality.

Rosé Vintage 2015	£160
Cuvée Winston Churchill 2013	£275

In 1858, Madame Pommery took over as head of Pommery & Greno after the death of her husband. She based the expansion of her House on the creation of wines unlike any others, with one constant demand: quality pushed to the extreme. Well aware of how important the grapes' origin was to the quality of her wines, over the years she built a collection of the finest vineyards in all of Champagne.

Cuvée Louise 2004	£200
-------------------	------

The house of Ruinart is unlike any other. It was the first established champagne house in 1729 and inspired by the intuition of a monk well ahead of his time.

Ruinart Brut	£96.50
Ruinart Rosé	£140
Blanc de Blancs	£160
Dom Ruinart 2007	£250

Veuve Clicquot

True to this heritage, the House is proud of its motto: "Only one quality, the finest". In its history there have been only 11 Cellar Masters at Veuve Clicquot. This has resulted in a never finding quest for quality and ensured the continuity of the Veuve Clicquot style: strength and complexity. Veuve Clicquot prides itself on excellence and quality.

Brut Reserve	£85
Prestige Rosé	£95
La Grande Dame 2012	£225

Champagne Taittinger relies primarily on estate grapes for its portfolio of Champagnes. Also unique are the higher proportion of Chardonnay in its wines that gives Taittinger its signature style, and the time devoted to aging the wines before release – most often greatly exceeding the legal requirement, in a practice that also has become a Taittinger hallmark.

Taittinger Brut	£95
Nocturne	£85
Nocture Rosé	£90
Prelude Grand Cuvée	£110
Comtes de Champagne Blanc de Blancs 2011	£219

Strictly speaking, not a Grande Marque House, why is it here?
Simply put – Because it is superb Champagne and must be included!

Brut Reserve	£75
